What Kind of Disciple are You?

A DISCIPLE IS DEFINED BY MERRIAM WEBSTER AS ONE WHO ACCEPTS AND ASSISTS IN SPREADING THE DOCTRINES OF ANOTHER.

Coming up – opportunities to grow.

We can be disciples of celebrities, athletes/teams, politicians, intellectuals, ministers, organizations, corporations or movements. So, what kind of disciple are you?

In the church we are disciples of Jesus. Last year the United Methodist Church's Discipleship Ministries Agency launched an initiative called #SeeAllThePeople. The basic principle behind the movement is that churches need to stop trying to "fix" the church and return to our Methodist and Biblical roots of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Through such efforts and actions the world (and our churches along with it) will be transformed.

#SeeAllThePeople also included a wonderful definition of a disciple as one who knows, grows, shares and serves Jesus Christ. So, how well do you know Jesus? How are you growing in Christ? What are you doing to serve Jesus? And, how are you sharing the life giving message of the Gospel?

Being new to Shandon, I am amazed at the great opportunities for you this fall to grow as a disciple. Doorways are our classes and courses to help you study God's Word and teaching. Courses range from Disciple Bible Study to Financial Peace University to Why Men Hate Going to Church (seriously, that's a class) are being offered. Check out the full offering in the Bruner Building hall behind the Sanctuary (i.e. where the church offices are, if you're new here like me).

Shandon has an incredible Sunday School program with a wide variety of classes for all ages and interests. We also offer a small group ministry called D-group, where you can engage in a more intimate setting of study and journeying together with men, women or couples who may be in a similar life stage. New D-groups will also be forming in September beginning the 9th. To sign-up for the D-group Launch, contact Ruthie Taylor at rtaylor@shandon-umc.org.

Finally, if you are relatively new to Shandon and desire to join or simply know more about who we are, what we do and how to get involved, I'd like to extend an invitation to our upcoming TREK Class, which is a five week orientation to Shandon. It's also a great way to connect with some other new folks and our pastors. I hope you will join us Sunday afternoons from September 23-October 21. To learn more and register for the Fall TREK please visit <https://shandontrek.wordpress.com/>

So, what kind of disciple are you? How will you grow as a disciple? And, how will you share what you have learned as a disciple? I pray you will take advantage of the many opportunities Shandon provides you and look forward to growing, knowing, serving and sharing with you. In Christ's Peace, James

STEWARDSHIP IS ...

Ann Davis Manning dropped by the church with her mom, Caroline Manning, to drop-off money that she and some friends made at their lemonade stand last month. Ann Davis, along with her brother Jefferson, Molly DiBiase and Pearson DiBiase, raised $73.00 at their lemonade stand. They served strawberry lemonade and regular lemonade. Instead of keeping the money for themselves, they wanted to share it with the church. Ann Davis, when asked what she would like to do with the money, replied that she wanted to share it with children who were homeless so that they could buy some school supplies for school. Lesli Wood told her about the Family Shelter and invited her to join our next occasion there so she could meet some of the children who live at Family Shelter. Stewardship moment at it's finest!
